

CORRESPONDENCE

Editor,

The Medical Library is compiling an index of all journal articles of interest to Singapore and Malaysia. These articles may be written by local or foreign authors and published in local or foreign medical journals. It is the intention of the Library to keep the index as complete and as up-to-date as possible should we decide to publish it at a later date. We would be grateful if you would bring this matter to the attention of S.M.J. readers and we request their cooperation in sending us reprints of their publications.
