WHAT'S IN A NAME

The Editor

Dear Sir,

I am greatly distressed by a contributor to your latest Journal (Vol. 13, No. 5, October 1972) who had placed the terms "SENIOR LECTURER AND CONSULTANT PHYSICIAN" after his name. I have no doubt that he is an excellent physician but as far as I am aware the term "Senior Lecturer" is a University designation and "Consultant Physician" is a Government designation and "ne'er the twain shall meet". Otherwise you will next have Government doctors using the terms lecturer, senior lecturer and professor after their equivalents. What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander. One presumes that the only reason for contributing to a Journal is to inform. To make sure that this is so, I would suggest that in future all papers should only have the author's name and place of work printed, omitting the degrees and other fancy decorations.

I would welcome comments from you and your readers.
