

ASSOCIATION NOTES

THE INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF APPLIED PSYCHOLOGY

The International Association of Applied Psychology will hold its 18th International Congress in Montréal, Province of Québec, Canada, from July 28th to August 2nd 1974. Members of IAAP, non-members as well, university students are invited to present papers (personal communication, colloquia, etc) or attend the Congress in order to profit from the presentations of some of the world's eminent scientists. Coming from about one hundred countries, more than 4,000 participants are expected at the Congress which is under the Patronage of the Université du Québec (Montréal) and of the scientific associations of Canada and of the Province of Québec. The participants will also be able to sample both the gastronomic and social events of Montréal, sometimes called the Paris of North America. More detailed information may be obtained from the Secretary General of the 18th IAAP Congress,
