

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Singapore Cancer Society now has two trained stoma care volunteer nurses who will be able to provide much needed advice and help in the care of stoma patients. Hitherto, they have been able to attend to calls received from hospitals only. They will now be able to see patients after discharge from the hospital for follow-up sessions at the Clinic of the Singapore Cancer Society for continued care of any problem.

If you have patients requiring help, please telephone the Singapore Cancer Society (321608/321606) for appointments.

You may also wish to inform your poor and needy patients who cannot afford to buy colostomy bags that some assistance may be obtained from the Society. They are requested to apply for assistance through the Medical Social Worker of the respective hospitals.
