

AUTHORS' REPLY

Dear Sir,

Pertaining to the history of Civil Aviation Medicine in Singapore, the medical regulation and licensing of civilian flight crew was taken over from the Royal Air Force in the 1970s. This function was executed from Tan Tock Seng Hospital⁽¹⁾ and not Alexandra Hospital, as reported in our paper.⁽²⁾ The authors would like to thank Prof Chew Chin Hin for the correction.

Yours sincerely,

Gan Wee Hoe
Low Chin Howe Robin

Republic of Singapore Air Force Medical Service
RSAF Aeromedical Centre
492 Airport Road
Singapore 539945
Email: gan_wee_hoe@yahoo.com.sg

Jarnail Singh

Civil Aviation Authority of Singapore
Civil Aviation Medical Board
Singapore Changi Airport
Singapore 918141

REFERENCES

1. Face to Face with the Master. An interview with Prof Chew Chin Hin. Ann Acad Med Singapore 2011; 40:338-47.
2. Gan WH, Low R, Singh J. Aviation Medicine: global historical perspectives and the development of Aviation Medicine alongside the growth of Singapore's aviation landscape. Singapore Med J 2011; 52:324-9.